

FOOTSTEPS

Discussion questions

1. What would you do if someone kidnapped your child or grandchild?
2. Did you feel that Jill played the role of a good friend?
3. Regarding Debra's problem with alcohol, do you feel society leans toward masking pain?
4. God doesn't promise us a life without trials. What does He promise us?
5. If your child were kidnapped, would you be able to forgive the perpetrator?
6. Why should we forgive?
7. What do you feel was Michael's mother's problem?
8. Did you understand why Debra needed to work with children? Would you have been able to do the same thing?
9. At one point in the story, a Christian character breaks the law in order to return Debra's children. Do you justify this?
- 10 Debra was afraid of a relationship again. What changed in her life in order for her to Trust Cale?

Additional questions for those with children

1. What precautions do you take when your child is outside playing or visiting at a friend's house?
2. At what age do you feel a child should memorize their address and phone number?
3. Have you established safe places for your child in the event of danger?
4. Do you know personally of a child abduction? Has it changed your habits?
5. Have you established a code word for your child? Why or why not?