The Eye of Lariloth

The Breckonwood Chronicles Series Book 1

Twelve-year-old Arroah lives in the remote western province of Breckonwood. Her parents claim others seek to harm her because of the golden sword etched into her left wrist. Why? Arroah finds answers from a forbidden dragon who challenges her to a dangerous quest and to fulfill her destiny as written in the Ancient Writings of Elysium.

The Eye of Lariloth*, is available for review, and authors Grace Egert & DiAnn Mills are available for interviews to discuss:

- It took 2 1/2 years to write this book. How did Grace and DiAnn work together to create the story?
- The story world with the various creatures and vocabulary took countless hours of research and discussion.
- Grace's and DiAnn's goal in writing this story was to show how people and creatures are unique and valued.

About the Authors

DiAnn Mills and her granddaughter Grace Egert teamed up to write this middle-grade fantasy.

Grace Egert is an elementary school student in Friendswood, Texas. She loves to write short stories for her family and friends.

Grace's hobbies are basketball, gymnastics, reading, making videos, and hanging out with her friends. Want to take her out to eat? Her fav food is Chinese, and she loves root beer. Grace is active in her church. She enjoys short-termed mission trips.

DiAnn Mills is a bestselling author who believes her readers should expect an adventure. She creates action-packed, suspense-filled novels to thrill readers. Her titles have appeared on the CBA and ECPA bestseller lists; won two Christy Awards; and been finalists for the RITA, Daphne Du Maurier, Inspirational Readers' Choice, and Carol award contests.

She is co-director of the Blue Ridge Mountains Christian Writer's Conference and Mountainside Marketing Conference. Connect with DiAnn here: www.diannmills.com
