DiAnn Mills
Sworn to Protect
Discussion Questions

1. Grief is often a formidable monster. How do you think Danika was handling the second year anniversary of her husband's death?

2. Have you ever considered a job that might put you or your family in danger?

3. Danika and Sandra were much closer than employer and employee. Why do you think this was important in the circumstances surrounding Danika and Tiana's lives?

4. Jacob was bitter about his brother's death and it affected his relationship with his family. How do you think you would have reacted in the same situation?

5. Alex had his own personal views about undocumented immigrants. How were they different from Danika's?

6. If you had been Danika's friend, would you have encouraged her to seek out a relationship with Alex?

7. How do you feel about Sandra's deceit? Was she justified?

8. How far would you go to protect a family member?

9. It's been said that desperate people do desperate things. What motivated Jose?

10. Jacob made a renewed commitment to God and his family. Do you think he was able to keep his word? Why?

11. Should Alex have told Danika from the beginning about his friendship with Toby?

12. Before reading this novel, what was your opinion of the Border Patrol? Has it changed?

13. Do you think the situation with our borders has a simple solution?

14. At the end of the story, Danika and Alex pledged their love to each other. What did they learn from past relationships? Where did Christ fit?